IEH CORPORATION ANNOUNCES $5.1M ORDER IN SUPPORT OF PATRIOT MISSILE PROGRAM

BROOKLYN, N.Y., March 24, 2026 – IEH Corporation (OTCQX: IEHC) announced today that it has received a $5.1 million order for its Hyperboloid connectors in support of the Patriot Missile system.

Dave Offerman, President and CEO of IEH Corporation commented, “This order – our largest in decades - reflects the extraordinary demand for the high-performance Hyperboloid connectors we supply to our nation’s critical missile and air defense systems. Recent events have highlighted the urgent need for these programs, and the accelerated schedule for their delivery and deployment. These programs rely on IEH’s signature Hyperboloid connectors to ensure the highest reliability under the harshest conditions.

Our order backlog had already reached an all-time high before this award. With a strong pipeline and expedited delivery requirements, we expect these levels of production to continue, as the U.S. prioritizes defense readiness and equipment replenishment. As we have throughout our long history, IEH stands ready today and in the future to support our nation’s defense and that of our valued allies.”
